Alan Northcott Obituary

CONCORD - Alan Northcott, 69, of Concord, husband of Jane (Boffitto) for almost 50 years, passed away peacefully, surrounded by his loved ones, on Feb. 22, 2017.

He was born in Exeter on Nov. 30, 1947. He moved to Penacook at age four. He graduated from Penacook High school in 1965 and served in the Army from 1968 to 1972, a year of which he was in Vietnam.

He worked at Ethan Allen furniture, the Coos County Department of Corrections and at the New Hampshire State Prison for 25 years. He worked part-time at Water's Funeral Home during his retirement.

Alan was married to Jane (Boffitto) on April 1, 1967, and was blessed with dear children Dianna and her husband, Jason Wimpey, Marc and his wife, Julianne, and Ravyn. An engaged grandparent, many happy times were spent with grandchildren Abigail, Maria, Megan, Madelyn, Lucy and little Ollie, who brought him so much joy and laughter.

He was predeceased by his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Oliver C. Northcott.

He is survived by his brothers and sisters, Oliver and wife Vicky, Daphne and husband Dennis, Beverly and husband John, Scott and wife Judy, and Mary and husband Sean. In addition, he had many nieces, nephews and his dear Canadian cousins with whom he had a chance to visit often in recent years.

Alan was an active member of White Mountain Lodge 5, IOOF, since 2004. He also belonged to the Penacook Encampment 3, Fidelity Rebekahs and American Legion Post 21. He was currently serving as trustee on the Board of Directors of Presidential Oaks.

Alan was a wonderful son, husband, father, brother, grandfather and friend. He had the innate capacity to seek out the best in people without judgment, a legacy that will live on in the lives he has touched.
