Lucious C Richardson Obituary

Lucious C. "Sonny" Richardson, was called home to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on the 28th day of January 2024, at Brookwood Baptist Hospital in Birmingham, Alabama.

Sonny was born on March 19, 1937, in Jasper, AL, as the youngest of five children. He graduated from Walker High School in 1955, and after graduation, he entered the United States Army and served on many fronts with great distinction in the Army Security Agency. After retirement, he returned home and began employment with the State of Alabama as the Veterans Service Officer of Walker County. For the next 30 years, he effectively and graciously served military veterans, their widows, and their children in obtaining their military benefits. During this time, Sonny raised a family, obtained a college degree, was awarded the State of Alabama's Distinguished Service Medal, and was recognized in the Congressional Record in 2007 for his lifelong dedication to the veterans that he proudly served.

After his second retirement, Sonny enjoyed watching his grandchildren and great grandchildren become productive students and citizens in their respective communities.

Sonny was preceded in death by his parents Carrie Brown Richardson and Lucious Robert Richardson; sisters, Eleanor R. Clay and Emma Jean R. Pace; and brother, Benjamin T. Richardson; niece, Linda R. Bonner; nephew, Dale Pace.

Survivors include his beloved wife of 60 years, Imogene Herron Richardson; sons, Raymond E. Anchors (Melissa) and Robert F. Richardson (Holly); grandchildren, Alicia Anchors Bradshaw (Matthew), Ford E. Richardson, Ellen E. Richardson, and Amy Joy Richardson; and great-grandchildren, Shaylin Bradshaw and Gage Bradshaw. Sonny is also survived by his sister, Elaine R. Brooks; niece and nephew, Kathryn Pace Martinie (Gary), and James Brooks, Jr. (Carol) and their families.
